

Re-imagining Relationship

The Six Servants of Inner Union

Where the healthy masculine and divine feminine meet!

*Are you longing to experience a deeper sense of connection and playfulness in life?
Are you interested in bringing artistry to the craft of relationship?
Have you been deepening engagement with the divine feminine and wondering WHERE the healthy masculine is?*

It's time to meet THE SIX SERVANTS of inner union!

Re-imagining Relationships is a soulful and somatically based approach that brings artistry to the place where all human relationships originate – the human body and imagination.

This class invites you to creatively explore archetypes grounded in a cultural myth, The Six Servants, a story ripe for re-imagining in modern times. The four royal characters and six humble servants are archetypes that offer a playful and engaging approach into the body of perception as a resource in all of our relations.

- Storytelling • Journaling • Dream Work • Drawing • An embodied approach to archetypes

The artistry of relationships is truly a worthy craft to cultivate!
